Next Meeting

Saturday March 9 - 10:00 AM – Noon

ADS-B and the Birds and the Bees!
FAA WINGS Master Knowledge Topic 2 Credit
Please register in advance at FAASafety.gov

We will have a quick update on ADS-B, and then a guided discussion on the upcoming spring flying season.

These upcoming months are the time of the year where we are all so excited to finally get that plane out of the hangar and get out flying! Maybe take that flying trip we have been thinking about all winter!

Please join us as we discuss and share our experiences for the upcoming spring flying season...from birds, bees, and wildlife challenges...to thunderstorms, gusty winds, and "rusty"pilots!

Donuts and Coffee at 9:00am!

Next Event

Pancake Breakfast
Saturday March 23 8:30 - 11:00 AM

Enjoy our hot pancakes with Hurricane Sauce, sausages, and Scrambled Eggs. Fruit cup, milk, coffee and tea too. All you can eat for a $6.00 donation.

EAA CHAPTER 1310 MINUTES OF MEETING OF JANUARY 12, 2019

The meeting was called to order by President Jack Hildich at 10:02 AM.

Announcement: Dinner tickets are available.

PROGRESS REPORTS: Gil Midford should be ready to move his RV project by the end of February.

His panel is powered up and working. John LaRoche is working on the C-140, registration is being held up by the gov't shutdown. Bill and Augie are flying to Florida to look at a Swift that Bill is considering buying.

MEMBERSHIP: Many still have not paid.

SECRETARY'S REPORT: Accepted as published.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Total balance is $29,897.40. Details are available.

YOUNG EAGLES: No activity but Paul Dowgewicz got a request for an Eagle flight.

FLIGHT SCHOOL: Jim Wysocki is still waiting for the new registration for the C-152.

OTHER DISCUSSION:

The Hartford Flying Club may base an aircraft at 7B6.

Paul Dowgewicz said a new scholarship is being offered through EAA for training. There needs to be a procedure for awarding scholarships. A committee should be formed.

Larry Bryan said there is a new director at the Trolley Museum and she sounds interested in planning activities with the chapter.

Paul D. has updated the web site. Needs new pictures.

There was a discussion for future programs for the meetings.

HANGAR:

Bruce's lawyers still have not provided new info on the lease.

We still have a problem with a 10 year limit.

Jack Swift will make plans for future use of hangar when it is finished.

No further progress on assembly.

There is a possibility to have iron worker apprentices erect the hangar at no cost.

We may be able to do most of the work in house.

Jack H. has checked with Sutton -James on various insurance issues in the lease.

AIRPORT CHANGES:

The new main hangar door is well underway.

Wood has been moved from the Stearman hangar to the trailer.

New windsock is up thanks to Gil Wilcox and others.

Gil says he saw a sandblast cabinet that may be available, will look into it.

Jim W. would like to move the chapter tools into the old machine shop area.

Jack H. put some patch material on the storage container.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:53. The chapter video was shown.

Respectfully submitted,

James T. Glista, Secretary.

Looking for Information on Available Cubs

We received a request from Greg Fila. He's says he's an EAA old timer looking to buy an experimental Cub, Super Cub, or PA-11 variation. If you have any leads for him, please contact him at 845-832-3909 or gregfila1@yahoo.com

Gil Midford Moves Plane Project to Skylark

Gil has moved his RV-7A to a hangar at Skylark in order to complete its construction. Here are some photos of the move. Additional ones can be seen in the photo section of the chapter web site.

Aero Charting: New, Free, and it Does the Job

Eagle Cap Software introduces its solution for the hobbyist flier, the pilot who enjoys the hundred-dollar hamburger but doesn't like getting too techie. Aero Charting works on an iPad® and provides a moving map with vector aeronautical charts. It also allows custom route creation and integration with AOPA's Internet Flight Planner.

Brian Leutschaft, Product Manager for Aero Charting at Eagle Cap, says, "We felt there was the need for a simple, easy-to-use situational awareness tool for pilots. It provides the basics needed to plan, navigate and fly the whole of US airspace. We put everything on one screen, made it work on the iPad, and made it free. How's that?"

How is it free? Aero Charting is ad-supported, and for a limited time, users can permanently turn off the ads for just $9.99. Oh – and tell us what you think while your ideas are fresh in your mind. Just press the 'lightbulb' in the app to send us an email.

What's next? Leutschaft says, "FAA's IFR High, Low Enroute and Area charts along with VFR sectional charts. Stay tuned."
