EAA CHAPTER 1310 MINUTES OF MEETING OF May 13, 2020

Meeting was called to order by President Glenn Lees via Zoom/ teleconference.

No reports were submitted except for the treasures report (Available to members)

There was a discussion concerning a crack in the taxi way joining the runway.

Paul Dowgiewicz reported Chapter videos are available on our web site, and are a good way to stay in touch with EAA.

We are paying $16.00 per month for Zoom. The free account limits to only 40 minutes.

Due to the pandemic and the age of many of our members, it was decided to continue remote meetings.

Our internet subscription is due in June at a cost of $120 per year. We will continue with it.

The Hartford Hanger of the QB will hold its June dinner in Bill Kulle's hanger on June 2. Chapter 1310 will set up and take down tables and chairs. We will not be involved in food service.

The following chapter events are canceled: June 13 cookout; July 11 Young Eagles; The Farm Table Dinner.

Our Tailwind project may lose its hanger as Pete is selling his plane and giving up his hanger.

Meeting was closed at 20:38

Respectfully submitted,
Jack Olsen Secretary

RV-12 Project at Bridgeport Bassick High School

Tango Flight is coming to Bridgeport this fall. It is a hands-on high school program where the students will build and fly their own RV-12 aircraft.

We have chosen Bassick High School in Bridgeport to launch the program with the support of the Bridgeport Board of Education. Despite the current uncertainty in our industry, those of us who are dedicated to aviation know that it will provide high paying jobs and endless opportunity to the next generation.

The program is fully funded. I am not asking for any funds from third parties.

But.....I am asking if you have some time to discuss how we can find volunteer mentors to assist the students on the basics of aircraft construction.

Tango Flight has been successfully implemented in 9 other cities across the country. The key to success is strong mentors who are willing to share their time and knowledge. Please see the attached overview.

Is there a convenient time for us to discuss getting your EAA chapter involved?

Thank you,
Aaron

NBAA Requests Extension for GA Pilot Medicals, Other Requirements, Under SFAR 118

---

The National Business Aviation Association (NBAA) and other associations today requested the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) extend the effective date for several exemptions or extensions for pilot medical certifications, training proficiency and a host of other requirements contained in Special Federal Aviation Regulation (SFAR) 118.

The relief package, which became effective on April 30, 2020, with most extensions expiring on June 30, 2020, provides regulatory relief for affected pilots to remain in compliance with several FAA mandates during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In a May 29 letter to FAA Associate Administration for Aviation Safety Ali Bahrami, NBAA and other associations expressed gratitude to the FAA for the agency's quick response to the compliance challenges caused by stay-at-home and other mandates resulting from COVID-19. While many states are lifting stay-at-home mandates, and businesses are beginning to reopen, some restrictions continue to negatively impact general aviation.

Read the full letter.

To ensure general aviation can continue to play a vital role in COVID-19 response, management and recovery, the associations requested:

1. An additional month of flexibility for pilots, operators, and certificate holders to comply with certain training, recent experience, testing and checking requirements provided in SFAR 118;
2. Additional relief until September 30 for duration, medical and renewal requirements provided in SFAR 118, and;
3. Relief for pilots, operators and certificate holders facing expiring experience, testing, checking, duration, medical and renewal requirements in July, August and September.

“The aviation community continues to move through an unprecedented and unpredictable period in our nation’s history” the associations said in the letter. “The nation’s return to unrestricted movement and person-to-person contact is taking longer than expected. While government entities continue to progress through various stages of reopening, additional flexibility will allow airmen and examiners to abide by CDC and individual state recommendations, while stimulating the economy and moving medical and emergency supplies when needed. The current mitigations in SFAR 118 will continue to ensure the safety of these operations during this additional extension.”

“While states and businesses are reopening, we are still far from normal,” said Brian Koester, CAM, NBAA director of flight operations and regulations. “This extension will give pilots and operators an opportunity to meet training and proficiency requirements in a safe manner, and allow pilots to fill critical roles in COVID-19 recovery.”

Associations signing on to the letter include the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA), Air Medical Operators Association (AMOA), Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA), Helicopter Association International (HAI), National Agricultural Aviation Association (NAAA) and National Air Transportation Association (NATA).
